

Join Parent Voices for the CALIFORNIA State UN-Fair Rally

Wednesday
July 14, 2010
10 am - 1 pm
State Capitol
South Steps

Riding the merry-go-round with your kids is fun, but not when your life becomes a circle of poverty because of cuts to child care services

On July 14, the California State Fair opens to the public. While families play on the carnival midway, thousands of other California families are struggling to make ends meet. Join us for a different kind of event to show our leaders that we need real revenues to protect child care.
